

DAVE BREBNER

Dave is a Neuro-diversity advocate and popular speaker for secondary schools, colleges & corporate events.

Bringing the principles of Neuroscience to Educational Practice & Career Development to your audience, through the power of stories.

"As a public speaker & presenter, I specialise in sharing the opportunities & pathways available to you through the power of educational neuroscience.

Using my own story, I speak at educational and corporate events on the fascinating neuroscience of the teenage brain and the power of stories to reach our highest potential.

Let's talk about your next event. Call me on 0402 131 955."
